

I would like to KEEP the wisconsin No call list. Since I've had my number on the list, I have gotten no more annoying calls in the evening, which interrupt what little free time I do have with my family. If the companies want to contact me, they can do it through the mail. I wish they had the same policies for the internet.